There is hope!

- ▶ Amidst this impoverished society, two small but determined hospitals are treating patients today and training tomorrow’s leading doctors.
- ▶ The Angkor Hospital for Children in Siem Reap provides free medical care to more than 98,000 children annually on a budget of little more than $1 million dollars.
- ▶ The Sihanouk Hospital Center of HOPE in Phnom Penh is the busiest adult hospital in Cambodia. It provides free quality medical care to all who seek it.
- ▶ Both hospitals have been internationally recognized for their state of the art training of doctors, nurses, and community healthcare workers.

Primitive is proud to host the fundraiser for Friends Without A Border and HOPE worldwide. Primitive offers a world-renowned collection of original and antique artifacts, furniture and accessories from India, China, Africa and around the world. Among Primitive's intimate and fascinating gallery spaces, the Buddha Room offers the visitor a rare experience, which features the work of the Dali Lama's court painter, Mohan Lama. Enjoy a stroll through Primitive's sensational setting. In further support of these hospitals, during the entire month of October, Primitive will donate 10% of all sales when you mention "Build Cambodia."

Friends Without A Border

Friends Without A Border is the US parent organization for the Angkor Hospital for Children. FWAB is a 501c3 organization and the Angkor Hospital for Children is its sole beneficiary. The Angkor Hospital for Children was founded in 1999 by Kenro Izu, a world-renowned photographer. Friends and AHC are dedicated to improving the quality of medical care in Cambodia through a three-pronged approach:

- ▶ providing world class medical care to children
- ▶ training physicians, nurses and community based health workers
- ▶ providing community outreach programs on sanitation, nutrition and HIV/AIDS prevention

HOPE worldwide

The Sihanouk Hospital Center of HOPE opened its doors in December 1996. It is managed by the US-based charity, HOPE worldwide.

The hospital's mission is to provide a center for the further education and clinical training of medical professionals, while delivering 24-hour, high-quality, free medical care to the poor and needy of Cambodia.

Research and capacity-building are now also focus areas of the hospital's strategic direction.
